CURRICULUM

The intensive program in Mandarin Chinese lasts ten weeks, and covers a year’s work. The Mandarin Primer and other materials developed at Harvard and Princeton are used. Beginners in Chinese are accepted. Intensive courses are offered in Beginning, Second-year, Third-year, Third-year Literary, and Fourth-year Chinese. They are taught in Chinese as much as possible, exclusively so at the advanced levels. Contemporary texts supply material for language practice. Full use is made of the Language Laboratory.

SPECIAL LECTURES. Each week, distinguished lecturers are invited to spend several days at the School, lecturing in Chinese and English, conducting discussion groups, and providing further vernacular and area material for language practice.

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

All students live on campus in dormitories exclusively assigned to the Chinese School. Faculty and staff take their meals with the students and share actively in the social life of the school. Advanced students pledge themselves to use Chinese exclusively among themselves and with the faculty. Second-year students promise to do so to their maximum ability. By mid-session, even the beginners use common phrases with some fluency. Dramatics, singing, and picnics contribute to “living” the language.

FEES AND CORRESPONDENCE The unit fee for tuition, board and room for the ten weeks is $1000. Applications and all correspondence should be addressed to The Chinese School, c/o Dr. Stephen A. Freeman, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont 05753.

A separate complete bulletin with full details, application blanks and information on fellowships, scholarships and self-help will be sent on request.
History  The Middlebury College Language Schools were the pioneers in the development of segregated, specialized summer schools for the study of modern languages in this country. The German School was founded in 1915, followed by the French and Spanish Schools in 1916 and 1917 respectively. The German School was reopened in 1931; the Italian School was added in 1932, and the Russian School in 1945. These schools have made a distinctive contribution to educational progress in America, and won for Middlebury an international reputation.

The Middlebury Idea  Thorough training in the use of the foreign language is the foundation of Middlebury's reputation. These five schools aim to give a mastery of the spoken and written language, and a coordinated knowledge of the life, institutions, literature, history, and culture of the foreign country. The basic Middlebury rule is strictly enforced—the segregation of students from contact with English; complete concentration upon the foreign language; exclusive use of the language in and out of the classroom; and careful attention to the individual needs of each student. Each school has its separate residences and dining halls and a faculty of native instructors. During the entire session, the foreign language is the sole medium of communication in work and play. From the day of arrival, students are pledged to speak the foreign language.

Objectives  The schools have long been devoted to the intensive preparation of teachers of languages. At present, the serious shortage of well-trained language teachers makes this function even more significant. The schools have also provided trained linguists for our armed services, for many specialized government agencies, and for scientific research. Language training is essential for those who participate in international organizations, whether political, military, or cultural. It is now recognized that a greatly increased study of foreign languages by the American public is in the national interest. Middlebury offers ideal conditions for such study. The fundamental ideal of the Language Schools of Middlebury College is to help achieve a durable peace and real international cooperation, based on an understanding of our cultural heritage and the thought processes of our neighbors in a small world.

Location The Middlebury Language Schools are located in a lovely Vermont countryside, at the foot of the Green Mountains, fifteen miles from Lake Champlain. They occupy the campus of Middlebury College, founded in 1800 and still one of the most charming of New England colleges. The summer climate is delightful, with clear dry breezes and cool nights. No college in the East offers more attractive opportunities for out-of-door recreation. The program of studies leaves late afternoons and week ends free. Groups of students frequently spend an afternoon hiking in the mountains, swimming at Lake Dunmore or in the college indoor pool. Tennis and golf are available. Lake Champlain, Mount Mansfield, Ticonderoga, the Adirondacks, Lake Placid, or the White Mountains: any of these can be visited in a day’s trip.

Atmosphere The schools endeavor to make everything in the life of a student during his stay contribute as effectively and as pleasantly as possible to the mastery of the foreign language. Similarity of aim among students fosters good comradeship and an esprit de corps; while constant association with instructors at the dining tables, in songs and games, on hikes and picnics, no less than in the classroom, brings both inspirational and intellectual stimulus. Programs of musical concerts, informal sings, foreign films, dramatics, outings and sports are organized.

Admission All the schools are graduate schools. The courses require advanced preparation and real linguistic ability. A few outstanding undergraduate majors may be accepted if they have exceptional preparation. Students may enter without examinations and without being candidates for degrees. All students are carefully screened and placed in the classes best suited to their advancement. Students are admitted for one summer only, and must reapply for any succeeding summer. Veterans should inquire about required documents and procedures.

The Pledge No student will be admitted to a school unless he is able and willing to use only the language of the school, during the entire session, wherever he may be. This rule, which is a cherished and unique tradition of the schools, and a fundamental of the Middlebury method, is consistently enforced from the moment the student enrolls. It holds good for the individual dormitory rooms, all extra-curricular activities, and excursions. It is all-inclusive. Students may use English in their dealings with the people of the village, but even in these cases, students must not speak English to each other. At the opening of the schools, each student will be required to sign a formal statement, pledging his word of honor to observe this rule.
The right is reserved to dismiss students who willfully break it. Only the director or the dean may grant temporary release, upon occasions which may warrant it. If, even after the opening of school, a student is found to be unable to comply with this rule, the administration reserves the right to request him to withdraw and to refund the fees paid.

Academic Status The quality of instruction offered at the Middlebury Schools is well known. As compared with foreign travel or study, a summer session here is more economical, provides courses better suited to the needs of American teachers, and gives an intensive training not found in foreign institutions. Such study furnishes the indispensable preparation for profitable study in the foreign land. The summer of 1968 brought students from forty-nine different states and fourteen foreign countries. Over 92% of the students held degrees, and over 19% held the master’s degree or the doctorate. The majority of the students are candidates for advanced degrees. Three hundred twenty-four Master’s degrees were awarded in August, 1968, including those completed in the Schools Abroad; and one Doctorate in Modern Languages.

Equipment The Sunderland Language Center, completed in 1965, is shared by all the schools, and all students use it free of charge. The Freeman Laboratory is equipped with the most modern facilities for language learning. The sound-proof air-conditioned individual practice carrels are each provided with a console combining two tape recording and playback machines, permitting the student to work individually on his own exercise, at his own preferred speed and time. There are also large collections of literary recordings on tapes and discs. Audiovisual classrooms are equipped for film-strip and synchronized slide showings, recording and playback. The Dana Auditorium provides for concerts, lectures, motion pictures, and panel discussions. All students, especially those in charge of a language laboratory, are invited to consult with Professor Watkins, Director of the Language Laboratory, in his office in the Center, by appointment.

The College Library, with its new wings, has extensive collections of books and magazines in all five foreign languages. All students have stack privileges. Each school has its own Bookshop, bringing attractive offerings of books direct from the foreign country. Each school also presents its own series of sound films, collections of realia, illustrative material, and teaching aids. The Wright Memorial Theatre, near Le Chateau, with its fine auditorium, complete modern dramatics equipment, and classrooms, is shared by all the schools.

Credits Each course meeting daily carries two semester hours of credit. Students who wish credits, transcripts, or recommendation must take the final examinations at the close of the session. Not more than six credits may be gained in one summer by an undergraduate, and not more than eight credits by a graduate student. The passing grade is 80 for a graduate student, 70 for an undergraduate.

The Master's Degree A student who wishes to become a candidate for an advanced degree at Middlebury College must apply for it, submitting the necessary documents, including proof of an acceptable A.B. degree or its equivalent. Enrollment in a school or the passing of graduate courses in it does not constitute acceptance as a candidate for a degree. Students cannot be accepted as candidates for the bachelor's degree.

The Middlebury Master's degree in a foreign language requires an approved program of thirty credits, of which twenty must be earned in residence. Transcripts submitted for transfer of credit should be sent to the school before the opening of the session, and prior approval of the study should be secured when possible. Transfer credits expire ten years after the date of the completion of the study. Graduate credits earned at Middlebury College also expire ten years after the date of the completion of the study. Study in a foreign country in courses approved by the dean may be counted. Six credits is the maximum allowed for a single summer session of foreign study. Twenty credits must be earned in the major language; ten may be earned in closely related subjects approved by the dean. A qualified undergraduate may be permitted to accumulate a maximum of twelve graduate credits applicable toward an eventual Master's degree at Middlebury. Students desiring to count credits taken at Middlebury toward degrees to be secured elsewhere should obtain permission to do so from the institution to which they wish the credits transferred. Degrees are conferred in August or at the Commencement following the completion of the work. A graduation fee of $20 is required.

The Degree of Doctor of Modern Languages Middlebury College also offers, through the Foreign Language Schools, the advanced degree of Doctor of Modern Languages (D.M.L.). The main requirements are a thorough knowledge of a major language and its literature; two minor languages; the equivalent of a year's resident study beyond the Master's degree; a year of study in a foreign country; and a thesis written in the major language. The complete brochure will be sent on request.

Living Accommodations Students live in the college dormitories, and board is provided by the college. All rooms are completely furnished by the college; blankets, sheets and towels are supplied. Arrangements for personal laundry may be made after arrival. No accommodations for married couples are available. Students should not live in town, since they fail to derive full benefit from the Middlebury experience, but those who may have a valid reason for doing so must receive permission from the dean of their school, and must assume entire responsibility for finding places. Since dormitory accommodations are limited, students are urged to apply for admission very early, preferably in the preceding autumn. The right is reserved to close applications in any school after February first. Cancellations may make room for later acceptances from a waiting list. Acceptance as a student is pre-requisite, but does not guarantee dormitory accommodation.

Health Service A full-time physician, the Medical Director of the college, is assisted by a resident graduate nurse. They hold regular office hours, and are on call at all times in case of emergency. This service is free to all enrolled students. When the nature of a student's illness requires the continued services of a doctor, or hospitalization, or special medication, the student assumes all the financial obligations involved, as his fees to the college do not cover them. The tuition fee includes an accident insurance policy with limited coverage. No special diets can be arranged.

Transportation Middlebury is halfway between Burlington and Rutland, Vermont. Students not arriving by automobile may make bus connections on the Greyhound and Vermont Transit Lines in New York City, Albany, Boston, or Burlington. Bus timetables will be provided on request. There is no railroad passenger service direct to Middlebury. There is scheduled airplane service to Burlington from Boston via Northeast Airlines and from New York via Mohawk Airlines. Baggage should be sent by railway express.

Opening of the Session All these schools will open the session of 1969 on Friday, June 27 and will continue until August 14. The houses of residence will open to receive students on Friday, June 27, and lunch will be served at 12:30 p.m. No guests can be received earlier. Members of the faculty, and waiters or waitresses may occupy their rooms on Thursday night, June 26. All houses close after lunch, Thursday noon, August 14, and no guests can be accommodated after that time. Commencement exercises will be held on Tuesday evening, August 12.

Enrollment Procedure Upon arrival, each student must report to the office of his school for enrollment and selection of courses. The offices will be open on Friday and Saturday, June 27 and 28. Students should then pay their bill at the Office of the Cashier on the first floor of Old Chapel. The Language Schools Office is on the second floor of the Sunderland Language Center. The first assemblies of the schools are held on Sunday evening, June 29. Classes begin at 8:00 a.m., Monday, June 30.

Fees The administration reserves the right to make any changes without notice in courses, staff, living arrangements, etc. The following information about fees should be carefully noted.

Rates Rates in all these schools vary according to single or double occupancy of rooms. The inclusive fee for registration, tuition, board and room will be from $575 to $630. The tuition fee for students rooming in town is $335. A student's entire bill is payable at the opening of the session. A bill will be sent in due time, and students are urgently advised to avoid inconvenience by paying it in advance by mail; otherwise bringing all money for fees in the form of money orders, express checks, or cashier’s checks. Checks should be made payable to Middlebury College.

Registration Fee Each accepted applicant must pay a $50 registration fee when requested by the Language Schools Office. This fee will be credited to the student’s total bill and an applicant is considered officially registered only when he has paid this fee. It is required of every student. No dormitory space is assigned until this fee is received. This fee will be refunded only if notice of cancellation is received by the Secretary of the Language Schools before May first; after May 1 no refund will be made.

Auditors All courses in a school are open to auditing at any time without charge by members of that school, or by members of another of the Language Schools on permission of both the respective deans. Visitors to Middlebury, not members of a school, may be permitted to enroll as auditors, on payment of the fee of $35 a week or $125 for four or more weeks, arrangements to be made in the Language Schools Office. All such auditors are not entitled to take part in class discussions, nor to receive the attention of the professor. Auditors may also attend social events and evening entertainments. Guests of students cannot be accommodated in the college dormitories.

Enrollment in Two Schools A student enrolled in one school may also enroll for credit in another school, on payment of an additional fee of $35 per course, if by reason of his proficiency, he receives the consent of the deans of both schools. This privilege is subject to the limitations of staff and space, and may not be available in certain heavily elected courses. Students interested in a particular course should inquire in advance.

Late Enrollment All students are required to enroll and pay all fees not later than June 30. Enrollment after that day will be accepted only by special permission secured in advance from the dean, and will be subject to a fine of $3.00 for the first day and $1.00 additional for each day late during the first week of classes, after which no enrollments will be accepted. Rooms reserved for students will not be held after July 1 unless permission has been secured in advance from the dean.

Transcript Fees One official transcript of a summer’s work will be issued without charge on written request to the College Registrar. A fee of $1.00 is charged for each additional transcript. No transcripts will be issued or grades given to students financially indebted to the college, until satisfactory arrangements have been made at the office of the Cashier.

Refunds Owing to fixed obligations for instruction and maintenance, persons arriving late or leaving school before the close of the session must not expect reimbursement of any charges. No allowances will be made for week-end absences.

Career Placement The Placement Office provides all summer school students and alumni of Middlebury College with a central source of information and with personal counseling on career planning. Students should register with the Placement Office as soon as possible after their arrival.

Correspondence Correspondence concerning rooms, fees, and other general information, should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College; Middlebury, Vermont 05753. The telephone number is 802-388-7973. Correspondence concerning admissions to a particular school, courses, credits and self-help should be addressed to the Director or Dean of the school concerned.
The French School will expand still more this summer its section of Literature and Civilization. The Visiting Professor, M. Gérard Genette, one of the most brilliant proponents of structural analysis of literature will apply this method to the study of Proust. Madame Genette will survey the methods of contemporary criticism and explore the modernity of Flaubert. The Visiting Lecturer, M. M. Riffaterre of Columbia University, will present five lectures on the Poetic Image. The theatrical activities will be directed by M. Jean-Paul Moulinot of the Comédie-Française who, with his wife, Elizabeth Hardy, will offer a panorama of the French Repertory. An innovation will be the offering of a course on Franco-Spanish literary relations, presented by Florence Delay, who is also a talented actress. Professor M. Lazar, of the Universities of Jerusalem and Yale will give two new courses on medieval literature. Dean Bourcier will study modernity in art and literature. The Director, Professor Jean Boorsch of Yale will return to the teaching of Linguistics and its cultural and pedagogical applications. Three new courses in Civilization are being established. In all, the French School will offer seventeen courses in Literature and Civilization, while the same high quality is maintained in the other divisions, language, phonetics, methods and self-expression.

COURSE OF STUDY

I. Language

11. ADVANCED FRENCH STYLISTICS. Designed to give advanced students a finer feeling for French style, a sense for shades of meaning, a mastery of certain difficulties not discussed in more elementary courses. Theoretical lessons in stylistics; advanced exercises in translation and composition. Strictly limited to fifteen students. (Required for D.M.L. candidates.)

9:00 M. RAMBAUD.

12. ADVANCED COMPOSITION. For students who, having a good knowledge of French, have not yet mastered certain peculiarities of syntax and phrasing. Texts of increasing difficulty translated into French; a few compositions; class discussions. Sections limited to fifteen students.

8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00

MM. GUIET, KROUCHI, MLLE VINCENT.

8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00

MME FOUREL, MILLES GOTTLIEB, NOËL.

Note: A written test will be given early in all the Language Courses. According to the results of this test, students will be assigned to the proper section of the course in which they registered, or to another course in this group.

II. Phonetics and Diction

21. DICTION, INTONATION, ELOCUTION. Intended to complete the work done in phonetics. Aims to impart the expressive shading of French diction, used in ordinary conversation or in public speaking. The course will make use of prose and poetry texts as well as of texts studied in course 61. Previous training in Phonetics required. 10:00, 11:00 MME HARDY.

22. ADVANCED PHONETICS. A lecture course on the physiology, acoustics, and perception of speech and the phonetic characteristics of French. Prerequisite: Intermediate Phonetics or equivalent. 9:00, 10:00 M. MALÉCOT.

23. INTERMEDIATE PHONETICS. Designed to acquaint the student with the articulatory detail of French and to perfect his own accent. Required practice in the Language Center with recorded models. 8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00 MM. CHAUSSAT, LASCOUMES, MALÉCOT; MME WATKINS.

Notes: 1. In all Phonetics and Diction Classes, placement tests will be given at the beginning, and each section will be limited to fifteen students.
2. In all Phonetics and Diction classes, intensive audio-oral training is provided, and all students are required to make regular use of the facilities of the Language Center.

III. Methods and Professional Training

32. LINGUISTICS, ITS HISTORY, CONTENT, AND APPLICATIONS. Panoramic view of the linguistic science and its components. The European as well as the American points of view are presented objectively. The course combines wide cultural views and discussions of the possible uses of linguistics by the language teacher (Required for D.M.L. candidates). 8:00 M. BOORSCH.

34. PROGRESS IN PROGRAMED FRENCH. The example by application of one method will serve to demonstrate to what degree, at the present time, a language can be self-taught. Collaterally, the course answers two needs: 1) that of practicing teachers wishing to reevaluate their own methods; 2) that of prospective teachers having no professional acquaintance with any method. 12:00 M. WATKINS.

35. SEMINAR IN LANGUAGE TEACHING. A group of experienced teachers limited to fifteen will raise, document and discuss certain questions of mutual concern. 9:00 M. WATKINS.

Note: All the students of the School, especially teachers and foreign language supervisors, are invited to avail themselves of the Consultation Service offered, through individual appointments, by Professor Watkins, Director of the Language Laboratory, in his office at the Language Center.

IV. Literature and Civilization

44. ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL EVOLUTION IN FRANCE SINCE 1789. The course will study the economic relations between France and Europe (protectionism or free trade), and their social consequences from the Revolution to the Common Market. 8:00 Mlle ARTAUD.

45. THE SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC GEOGRAPHY OF FRANCE. A systematic examination of the economic structure of contemporary France and of the social problems confronting it. 10:00 Mme JOUVE.
46. THE FRENCH REVOLUTION, 1789–1804. A study of the revolutionary crises in France from the end of the Ancien Régime to the establishment of the Empire.
12:00 MME Jouve.

50. THE XIIth CENTURY COURTLY NOVEL. A critical study of the themes, form and style in the following courtly novels: Thomas, Tristan et Iseut; Chrétien de Troyes, Cligès and Lancelot. To serve also as studies in Old French.
9:00 M. Lazar.

51. MEDIEVAL RELIGIOUS AND SECULAR DRAMA. The course will study the didactical infrastructure and the dramatic techniques of the liturgical drama, the miracle plays, the passion plays and the mysteries, comic and grotesque elements in religious drama and the evolution of secular drama.
10:00 M. Lazar.

52. STUDIES ON DESCARTES AND PASCAL. The course will study not only the fundamental dialectics of both thinkers, but also the philosophical and literary repercussions of their thoughts from the XVIIth century to XXth century existentialism.
12:00 M. Lazar.

53. SPANISH INFLUENCES ON FRENCH LITERATURE. A study of the transformations undergone by different themes, situations and characters in several plays and novels from the classical age to the present, when crossing over from Spain to France (Recommended for D.M.L. candidates in French and Spanish).
10:00 Mlle Delay.

54. THEATER AND SOCIETY IN THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY. The part played by the stage in the development of the Age of Enlightenment. Plays by Regnard, Lesage, Marivaux, Diderot, Sedaine and Beaumarchais. Theoretical writings of Diderot, Beaumarchais and J. J. Rousseau.
8:00 M. Rambaud.

55. THE NOVEL IN THE XVIIIITH CENTURY. The birth of the modern novel in the XVIIIth century: technical and esthetic problems; the new moral and social values as illustrated in the novels of Prévost, Marivaux, Rousseau, Diderot and Laclos.
9:00 M. Morisot.

57. FLAUBERT NOVELIST. The novels of Flaubert will be studied as a decisive turning point in the modern conception of literature.
10:00 Mme Genette.

58. THE POETIC IMAGE. Professor Riffaterre will deliver five lectures during the second week. The lectures will use various methods of style analysis in sample studies of the image in French poetry from Romanticism to Surrealism. Texts of Hugo, Nerval, Baudelaire, Verlaine, Rimbaud and surrealists poets. M. Haar will direct on a free schedule the work of the students enrolled in the course. (Required for D.M.L. candidates).
Lectures: 4:00 p.m. second week. M. Riffaterre.
Directed studies: Free schedule. M. Haar.

59. THE CONCEPT OF 'MODERNITY' IN LITERATURE AND ART, FROM BAUDELAIRE TO TODAY. Through the study of selected texts of poetry and criticism by writers such as Baudelaire, Rimbaud, Maillardé, Lautréamont, Laforge, Max Jacob, Apollinaire, the Surrealists, and others, the course will attempt to delineate the rise and development of the concept of 'modernity in art' and assess its implications in the contemporary world of literature and art, as well as its impact on the living attitudes of the 'now' generation.
9:00 M. Bourcier.
60. STRUCTURES OF THE PROUSTIAN UNIVERSE. The course will study the Proustian World according to the methods of structural analysis, stressing the architecture of the novel, the narrative techniques and the relationship between récit and discours. 11:00 M. GENETTE.

61. STUDIES ON THE FRENCH REPERTORY THEATER. Panoramic study of the French theater through the whole range of the repertory theater from Marguerite de Navarre to the present, with special emphasis on the evolution of dramatic presentation from the point of view of the actor and the director. 9:00 M. MOULINOT.

62. THEATER WORKSHOP. The problems of staging, illustrated in contemporary plays by Ionesco, Beckett, Audiberti, Dubillard. 12:00 Mlle DELAY.

64. PANORAMA OF CONTEMPORARY FRENCH CRITICISM. A study of various methodological approaches to criticism (sociological, existential, thematic, psychoanalytic, structuralist,) as exemplified in recent French critical studies. 12:00 Mme GENETTE.

V. ORAL PRACTICE

71. ADVANCED ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION. Carefully screened sections, limited to ten students. Intensive training in oral practice and self-expression. A detailed program for each hour; prepared discussions on assigned subjects, with definite vocabulary preparation and the building of discussion skills. (Required for Master’s Degree candidates.) 8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00 Mmes KROUCHI, VADON, Mlle ARTAUD.

72. PATTERNS OF CONVERSATIONAL FRENCH. A systematic course on the graduate level for students who already possess a real degree of oral fluency but need to acquire the habit of spoken language patterns which will make possible a spontaneity in self-expression. Students are rigorously screened at enrollment time and during the first class meetings, and sections are strictly limited to ten qualified students. 8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00 Mme ORANGERS, Mlle EDELSTEIN.

75. VOCABULARY AND ORAL PRACTICE. A systematic course for students who understand French readily but need to gain confidence and efficiency in speaking. The students will discuss topics and materials methodically organized. 8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00 M. GUILLOTON, Mlle BEL.

Note: Enrollment in all Oral Practice courses is on a tentative basis. At the end of the first week, students will be assigned to the proper course, according to their ability.

CURRICULUM REGULATIONS

Credits. Courses 11 (Stylistics) and 12 (Advanced Composition) may, with the consent of the Dean, be taken a second summer for credit, since the material of the course is varied each year.

Requirements for Degrees. Candidates for the Master’s degree must pass, before completion of their work, one advanced course at least in each of the following fields: Language (12 or 11), Phonetics (23 or 22), Methods (32, 34 or 35), Civilization (44, 45, 46) and Oral Practice (71), and earn not less than ten credits in advanced courses in Literature. Students who transfer credits for equivalent courses taken elsewhere may request release from the corresponding requirements. Special leaflets, sent on request, give the detailed rules governing the degrees of Master of Arts in French, and the D.M.L.

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

Use of French  No student will be admitted unless he is able and willing to use only French at all times, during the seven weeks of the session. Each student, when enrolled, will sign a formal statement, pledging his word of honor to observe this rule. The School reserves the right to refuse admission, at the opening of the session, to any student who fails to satisfy this basic requirement, and to dismiss, at any time, students who willfully break the rule. (See page 7.)

Consultations  The office of the Director is in the Sunderland Language Center; that of the Dean is in Le Château. The entire staff of the School is at the disposal of all students for counselling, at regular consultation hours announced early in the session, or by appointment.

Books  The collections of French books, in the College Library and the Château contain about 15,000 volumes dealing with all phases of French study—language, literature, history, civilization, art, and teaching methods.

General supplies, dictionaries and textbooks published in this country can be purchased at the College Bookstore, in Proctor Hall. La Librairie française, in the Château, attempts to reproduce a bookshop in France, handling French classics and reference works, but specializing in contemporary novels, poetry, drama, and non-fiction.

Equipment  For a description of the new Sunderland Language Center see page 8. In addition, the School is well supplied with all types of diversified equipment—maps, charts, film strips and slides on French geography, history and art. Movies of an instructional nature are shown and discussed. Extensive use is made of mimeographed or lithographed material, each class being supplied with outlines, bibliographies, and exercises, free or at nominal cost.

Planned Activities  The organized activities of the School are designed to make the life of the students as enjoyable and as profitable as possible:

Formal lectures, or informal “causeries,” are occasionally presented by the Director, other professors, or visiting guest lecturers.

A weekly “Gazette” is published by the School, giving advance notice of all interesting events, information about job openings, etc.

Every Sunday morning, the College Chapel is used by the French School for an hour of instrumental and vocal music, and readings from spiritual or philosophical writings. The French School Choir of one hundred voices is a celebrated feature.

In cooperation with the other Language Schools, the French School also presents foreign moving pictures, on weekday afternoons and evenings, and chamber music or vocal concerts by guest artists, on Sunday evenings. Picnics, community sings, sports, and a picturesque buffet lawn-supper afford occasions for continued association with the faculty and easy, spontaneous use of the language. Above all, the School is able to offer four dramatic presentations during the summer, usually on Friday nights. Carefully prepared, with painstaking attention to scenery, lighting, costuming, and staging, they always attract a large and appreciative audience, provide relaxation, and acquaint the teacher-students with simple yet effective plays that can be duplicated in their own schools without undue effort.

Dormitories The main dormitories of the French School are Forest Hall, and Battell North, Center and South.

The identifying feature of the French School and a cherished landmark of the campus, le Château was inspired by the Pavillon Henri IV of the palace of Fontainebleau. It contains two salons, two classrooms, a library, and the offices of the Dean.

In Forest Hall, one of the finest dormitories on the campus, all rooms are single. It also has beautiful reception and dining rooms.

Battell North, Center and South, on the approach to the Château, are built in a modified Georgian style, with pleasant rooms of modern design.

Dining Halls In the three dining halls of the School, the students gather at small tables, with a member of the staff presiding. Students and staff members rotate according to a prearranged schedule, enabling all to get better acquainted.
Scholarships A certain number of scholarships, usually covering part or all of the tuition fee, are awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Grateful acknowledgement is made of the following special scholarships, made possible through the generosity of friends of the School:

Two James Richardson Scholarships, by Mrs. James Richardson of Providence, R. I.;

The Stella Christie Scholarship, by Mrs. C. C. Conover of Kansas City;

The Claude Lévy Scholarship, by The Boston-Cambridge Group of l'Alliance Française;

The Léa Binand Scholarship, established by Mrs. Robert Christie, of Montclair, N. J., in honor of a member of long standing of the French School and the Middlebury College French Department Faculties, to be awarded through l'Amicale de Middlebury;

Two $100 and three full-tuition scholarships, by l'Amicale de Middlebury:
the Edith Packer Scholarship, in memory of a friend of long standing of the French School, one of the founders of l'Amicale;
the John D. Brennan Scholarship, in memory of one of the first members of l'Amicale, and the Vincent Guilloton Scholarship, in honor of the former Director of the School, now retired after fifteen years of devoted and successful service;

An unspecified number of scholarships, by the French Government;
Several scholarships, by anonymous donors.

Self-Help The only other way in which a student may assist in defraying his expenses is by waiting on table in the French dining halls, or by helping with kitchen work. Remuneration may vary, depending on the type of work done, but will, at least, cover board at the School.

Scholarship and Self-Help Applications Application blanks for either form of financial aid may be obtained from the Dean's Office. They should be filed before March 15 in order to be considered for the first listing of awards. Announcement of awards is made soon after April first.

Graduate School in France See the inside back cover of this bulletin.

Amicale de Middlebury This Association of Alumni, Professors, Students and Friends of the French School is destined to maintain the spirit of fellowship and comradeship among all those who have been associated with the School, or who approve of its aims; and to promote activites designed to further those aims. Particulars will be sent on request.

Correspondence Correspondence concerning admission to the school, courses, credits, degrees, scholarships, self-help and the "Amicale" should be addressed to the Dean of the French Summer School, Le Château, Middlebury, Vt. 05753.

Correspondence concerning rooms, fees and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vt.
Deutsche Schule

(FROM JUNE 27 TO AUGUST 14)

The Middlebury German School, which will hold its forty-second session this summer, is the forerunner of all the Middlebury Language Schools. It was founded in 1915 by Marian P. Whitney and Lilian L. Stroebe, both of Vassar College. Dr. Stroebe was its Director until 1917.

When the School reopened in the summer of 1931, Ernst Feise of Johns Hopkins University was appointed Director, and the School was located in the village of Bristol. On the retirement of Dr. Feise in 1948, Werner Neuse, who had been Dean of the School since 1932, was appointed Director. The School returned to the Middlebury Campus in 1951, where it occupies as its center Pearsons Hall, in which it was begun fifty-four years ago.

Dr. Neuse retired from his exemplary service in 1967 and Henry H. H. Remak of Indiana University was appointed his successor. Werner Haas is Assistant Director, and Miss Monika Sutter serves as Executive Secretary.

A number of noted scholars have been appointed to the 1969 faculty. Wolfgang Leppmann of the University of Toronto, author of Goethe und die Deutschen, will teach a Goethe course. Egon Schwarz of Washington University, author of Hofmannsthal und Calderón, will offer a seminar on the late Hofmannsthal as well as a course on Rilke. Wolfgang Wittkowski of Ohio State University, expert on German drama, is scheduled to teach courses on Kleist and Goethe's Faust. The influential critic Marcel Reich-Ranicki will give a seminar on literary criticism and a course on the great novels of the Weimar Republic. Among other fine teachers joining the faculty for the first time are Heinz Hillmann of the University of Hamburg, Sigrid Lanzrath of Inter Nationes, and Gérard Schneilin of the University of Paris (Nanterre). Of the returning faculty, lack of space permits us to mention only two distinguished scholars, Wolfgang Stechow of Oberlin College and Lutz Röhrich of the University of Freiburg.

Required Courses

For the Master's degree:

Two Civilization Courses

Structural Elements of Contemporary German

Phonetics

At least eight credits in German literature must be earned at the Middlebury German School, including a survey course and a seminar.

The first seminar may be taken as early as the second summer and preferably no later than the third summer. No student will be admitted to a seminar unless he has successfully taken the "Introduction to Literary Scholarship" or its equivalent. In certain cases, students may be allowed to carry their first seminar and the "Introduction" concurrently. Space permitting, candidates may elect to take more than one seminar, but not during the same summer, aside from exceptional cases.

Every student is required to enroll for three courses during the session, including at least one literature or civilization course. Exceptions from the three course minimum may be granted to master's candidates spending their last summer in Middlebury prior to graduation. Students will not be permitted to drop below the three course requirement for the purpose of avoiding a low grade. Each student will be given careful individual counseling to determine whether he should carry three or four courses and to help him select courses which do not make excessive demands on his time and effort. Master's candidates are reminded that "students are admitted for one summer only," "must reapply for any succeeding summer," and that "enrollment in a school or the passing of graduate courses in it does not constitute acceptance as a candidate for a degree" (pages 8 and 9). In marginal cases, the German School reserves the right to administer a special oral examination to a candidate before admitting him to the degree.

Students who plan to attend the Middlebury Graduate School of German in Mainz are required to take both the "Introduction to Literary Scholarship" and "Advanced Composition" during the summer before their year abroad. The same is recommended to students planning studies at German-speaking universities.

For the D.M.L. degree: Admission is highly selective. Students will normally not be admitted to the German School for more than one summer's study beyond the M.A. unless they have been accepted as D.M.L. candidates. Candidates are advised to take a seminar each summer.

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

The Aims The school is designed for advanced students who, possessing a good speaking, reading, and grammatical knowledge of German, wish to perfect their ability to use and teach it, to increase their understanding of its structure and history, and to deepen and broaden their acquaintance with German literature and its cultural background. A limited number of undergraduates strongly recommended by their instructors will be admitted.

Accommodations The School’s headquarters, dormitory for women, and reading room are in Pearsons Hall. The Director, Assistant Director, and Executive Secretary will have offices in Sunderland Language Center. Faculty and students dine together in Gifford Hall, rotating at tables according to a fixed schedule so that all may get better acquainted. One of the new Residence Halls north of Pearsons and one floor of Allen Hall will be the School’s dormitories in 1969.

Lectures, Plays, Concerts There will be special lectures by some of our faculty and by distinguished guests from the outside. The faculty will “read” a play and the students will stage their theatrical performance under the direction of Herbert Lederer. Our own music staff will be responsible for a number of concerts. A “Literarische Morgenfeier,” combining literature and music, will be held on several Sundays.

Recreation and Sports On the first Saturday, the School will go on a trip or hike into the near-by Green Mountains or to a lake in the Champlain Valley. Facilities for tennis, swimming, soccer, volleyball, and riding are available on or near the campus. Informal social gatherings are encouraged. After weekday noon meals, German songs are sung in the Alumni Hall Lounge.

Bookstore Books required in courses and additional titles of general interest will be on sale at the College Store.

Library The Middlebury College Library is well stocked in German language, literature, and cultural history. Books which may be needed for reference in certain courses are placed on reserve in the library. The German School also has a small but useful reference library of its own.

Opportunities for Service All waiters and waitresses in the German School dining hall must be able to speak German. Opportunity is therefore offered to a limited number of students to earn their board and a credit on the room fee in return for their service in the kitchen or dining hall. Those interested should file application blanks before March 15.

Scholarships The German School offers several scholarships for the 1969 session. Besides these, three special scholarships are available:

The Martin Sommerfeld Memorial Scholarship, established by the students and faculty in memory of Professor Sommerfeld who taught in the summer of 1939.

The Arno Schirokauer Memorial Scholarship, established by FIDES in memory of Professor Schirokauer who formerly taught in the German School.

The Ernst Feise Memorial Scholarship, established by FIDES in memory of Professor Feise who was the Director of the School from 1931 to 1948.

These three scholarships are from $100 to $300 each. A number of scholarships are offered by the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany. All are awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Occasional assistance in the operation of the German School may be requested of scholarship holders. Application blanks should be filed before March 15. The awards and the appointments will be announced by April 1st.

FIDES Former students, faculty, and friends of the German School have formed a Vereinigung der Freunde der Deutschen Schule (FIDES) whose aim is to keep all friends of the school informed about its activities, and to promote the spirit of Verbundenheit between them. All members are cordially welcome to visit the school during the summer.

Address Correspondence concerning admission, courses, credits, degrees, scholarships and self-help, should be addressed to the Executive Secretary of the German Summer School, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont 05753.

Correspondence concerning rooms, fees, and other general information should be addressed to Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont 05753.
THE ITALIAN SCHOOL
of Middlebury College was founded in 1932 by Dr. Gabriella Bosano. Dr. Camillo P. Merlino, Professor Emeritus of Boston University, was its Director for ten years, beginning with the 1938 session. Since 1947, Dr. Salvatore J. Castiglione, Jean Thomson Fulton Professor of Italian at Middlebury College, has been the Director.

The Visiting Professor for the 1969 session will be Paolo Ramat, Professor of Linguistics and Director of the Istituto di Letterature Straniere at the University of Cagliari. Other members of the staff will be Dr. Margherita Bernardi and returning faculty members Clavio Ascari, Rosalia Ascari, Pierina Castiglione, Giuliana Cavallini and Remo Trivelli. The curriculum will include, besides the regularly offered language courses and courses in literature and civilization, courses on the History of the Italian Language and on the Italian Narrative of the Postwar Period, to be taught by Professor Ramat, a course on Manzoni and The Teaching of Italian course.

Among the scholarships available for the 1969 session are three AMISA Scholarships offered by the Association of Middlebury Italian School Alumni, five scholarships offered by Dr. Nicholas Locascio, and several Cesare Barbieri partial-tuition scholarships.

The nineteenth annual summer meeting of AMISA will be held in Middlebury, July 11-13.

THE COURSES OF STUDY

I. Language

1. INTERMEDIATE GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION. A thorough review of the structure of the language; vocabulary building; written and oral practice, including free composition. This course aims to impart a reasonable degree of proficiency in spoken and written Italian. (Undergraduate credit only) 9:00 Signor Trivelli.

2. ADVANCED GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION. An advanced course for students possessing a good knowledge of Italian. It will consist of translations from English to Italian of texts of increasing difficulty, and practice in original composition. Frequent reference will be made to grammar and syntax in the systematic study of idioms. 9:00 Signora Ascarì, Signorina Bernardi.

4. ADVANCED ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION. Intensive training in oral practice, public speaking and self-expression. A detailed program arranged for each hour; prepared discussion on assigned subjects, with definite vocabulary preparation; short debates, oral reports, oral criticism of books and articles. 8:00 Signorina Bernardi, Signor Trivelli.

5. PHONETICS. A practical study of Italian Phonetics, based on the reading aloud of carefully chosen prose and poetry selections; emphasis not only on the correct pronunciation of Italian sounds, but also on the proper intonation of spoken Italian; classroom work will be integrated with extensive use of tape recordings. 10:00 Signora Ascarì.

6. STYLISTICS: TECHNIQUES OF TRANSLATION AND INTERPRETATION. This course is designed to meet, through the analysis of carefully chosen texts and the writing of compositions, the needs of students who already have a high degree of proficiency in Italian. It aims to help students gain command of Italian at various levels of speaking and writing. 9:00 Signora Castiglione.

7. HISTORY OF THE ITALIAN LANGUAGE. This course will consider the origin of the Italian language, its development from Vulgar Latin, and the principal phonetic, morphological and syntactical phenomena that distinguish it from other Romance languages. The first texts in volgare (up to the year 1200) will be studied. Attention will be given to sociolinguistics and to historical linguistics. 10:00 Signor Ramat.

II. Methods of Teaching

10. THE TEACHING OF ITALIAN. Discussion of methods and problems; examination of textbooks, audio-visual aids and other materials available for the teaching of Italian; assembling of material for classroom and laboratory use; development of an experimental course in Italian. 11:00 Signora Castiglione.

III. Literature and Culture

11. GENERAL VIEW OF ITALIAN CIVILIZATION. I. (Eleventh through Fifteenth Centuries.) The major contributions of Italian genius to the Western World in literature and in the arts will be considered against the historical background of the Middle Ages and the Early Renaissance. 12:00 Signorina Cavallini.

12. GENERAL VIEW OF ITALIAN CIVILIZATION. II. (To be offered in 1970.) (Sixteenth through Eighteenth Centuries.)
13. ITALIAN PROSE MASTERPIECES. This course is designed to acquaint the student with the most important prose writers of Italian literature, from Dante to modern times. Readings, discussions, reports. 10:00 Signor Ascari.

14. DANTE AND HIS TIMES (THE PARADISO). In the course of three summers the Divina Commedia is read and analyzed in the light of the literary, political and religious ideals of the Middle Ages. In 1969 the Paradiso will be the object of special study. This course may be taken for credit in three successive summers. 8:00 Signorina Cavallini.

15. SURVEY OF POETRY. (To be offered in 1970.)

16. MANZONI. A study of Manzoni’s I Promessi Sposi, one of the greatest 19th century novels, with special regard to the moral meaning of the characters and to the style. 11:00 Signor Ascari.

17. THE ITALIAN NARRATIVE OF THE POSTWAR PERIOD. Through extensive readings of Italian prose writers, ranging from Moravia, Pavese and Pratolini to Bassani, Gadda and Pasolini, a careful study will be made of the stylistic qualities of these authors and of the different levels of language (literary, colloquial, dialectical) used by them. 11:00 Signor Ramat.

19. RESEARCH. All students, especially candidates for the doctorate who are working on a problem of research, are invited to profit by the individual guidance offered by the school staff. Consultations will be arranged through the Director. Such assistance is gladly offered, and students are urged to take advantage of it.

SIGNOR CASTIGLIONE AND STAFF.

Credits. Course 2 (Adv. Grammar and Comp.) and Course 6 (Stylistics) may be taken twice for credit, as the material of the course varies each year. Course 14 (Dante) may be taken three times for credit, once on the Inferno, once on the Purgatorio, and once on the Paradiso.

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

Italian Dormitories Forest Hall West, one of the most attractive buildings on the Middlebury College campus, is the Italian School’s main dormitory and dining hall. Equipped with several social rooms and surrounded by shaded lawns, this dormitory lends itself to the atmosphere of friendly informality, one of the main features of the Middlebury experience. A section of Allen Hall is also used by the Italian School. Most of the faculty members reside on campus, thus actively promoting the spirit of good fellowship in an Italian atmosphere, and making the student feel that the exclusive use of Italian is both a natural and an enjoyable exercise. The Director’s Office is in the Language Center.

The Italian Dining Room  In the attractive dining hall of the Italian School, the hum of conversation is natural and spontaneous. Prompted and guided by understanding instructors who preside at each table, the students quickly overcome their linguistic shyness. In order to get better acquainted with one another and with all the instructors, students are required to rotate according to a fixed schedule.

Activities  The afternoons are left free for recreation and study. Students and teachers meet frequently in the evening for readings, lectures, choral assemblies, and social gatherings. All students are expected to take part in the weekly choral assembly and to attend extracurricular lectures and programs. The school picnics, tennis, the popular game of “bocce,” volley ball, as well as hiking, afford further pleasant relaxation.

Books  A well-balanced and constantly expanding collection of Italian books, housed in the College Library, amply provides for the needs of the students. In addition, textbooks and other aids for the teaching of Italian will be available for examination. In Forest West there is also an Italian bookshop at which students will be able to purchase the texts required for class work, as well as dictionaries and a variety of books of classic and modern Italian literature.

Scholarships For the summer of 1969, a number of scholarships are available. These will be awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application should be made to the Director before March 15; awards will be announced about April first. Grateful acknowledgement is made of the following special scholarships, made possible through the generosity of friends of the School:

Three scholarships given by the Association of Middlebury Italian School Alumni (AMISA), offered in memory of the late Pietro Borrani.

Five scholarships offered by Dr. Nicholas Locascio, of New York City.

A number of Cesare Barbieri partial-tuition scholarships, made possible by a gift from the Cesare Barbieri Endowment.

A scholarship, offered by an anonymous donor, to be awarded to a candidate for the D.M.L. degree.

A scholarship, offered by an anonymous donor, in memory of Dr. Gabriella Bosano.

Self-Help All waiters and waitresses are students at the school who are able to use Italian exclusively in the dining room. The remuneration for this service is board, and a credit on the room charge. Those interested should make application to Dr. Castiglione before March 15; awards will be announced about April first.

AMISA Membership in the Association of Middlebury Italian School Alumni, established in 1950, is open to students, past and present, faculty members and friends of the Italian School. The aims of the Association are “to encourage and advance, culturally and materially, the Italian School,” to keep its members informed of the activities of the School and its students, and to maintain the spirit of cordiality which the members associate with the Italian School.

Graduate School in Italy See the inside back cover.

Correspondence Correspondence concerning admission, credits, and choice of courses should be addressed to Dr. Salvatore J. Castiglione, Director of the Italian Summer School, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont 05753.

Correspondence concerning fees, rooms, and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont 05753.
The Russian School was founded in 1945 by Dr. Mischa H. Fayer, who ably directed the program until his retirement from Middlebury College in August of 1967. Dr. Robert L. Baker then assumed charge of the school. The Russian School is equipped to provide a rich background for students of Russia's humanistic culture, and for those preparing for diplomatic, scientific, teaching and other careers in which proficiency in the Russian language and acquaintance with the Russian civilization and culture may be of value. Through the Institute of Soviet Studies, the specialist in the fields of history, economics, government, etc., may gain fluency in the Russian language, and competence in the technical terminology of his field.

The 1969 Russian School will be honored by the presence on its faculty of the distinguished writers and literary scholars Arkadiy and Natalya Belinkov. Until their request for political asylum in the United States in the summer of 1968 Mr. and Mrs. Belinkov were intimately involved in the Moscow literary scene. Their presence on our campus this summer will provide an unparalleled opportunity for students to learn of recent developments on the intellectual scene in the Soviet Union.

One of the highlights of the session will be the fifteenth "Alumni Weekend," planned for July 18-July 20. A special program will be planned in connection with the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Russian School. Alumni interested in attending are invited to write to the Director for further details.

Requirements The following courses, or their equivalents, are required of M.A. candidates admitted to candidacy in 1968 or later. (Candidates already working toward the M.A. degree will complete the requirements in effect when they began their work toward the degree within the abilities of the School to offer all required courses. All such cases will be solved by individual consultation with the Director.)

Group I—Courses 13, 14, or the demonstration of equivalent proficiency. (Native speakers of Russian will substitute 25 and 26.)
Group II—21, 22, or 92.

Group III—33, 34, 35; one author or genre course.

Group IV—74 or 76; 75.

In addition each degree candidate must take at least one seminar course, normally in his last summer of study for the degree.

Students wishing to be recommended for teaching positions should also take courses 24 and 61.

Programs for candidates for the degree D.M.L. will be individually planned in consultation with the Director. All persons interested in this program should write to the Director for the special leaflet describing the D.M.L. degree.

In addition to requirements for the M.A., candidates for the D.M.L. will normally be expected to take any of the following courses not offered in fulfillment of M.A. requirements: 21, 22, 24, 25, 26, 27, 31, 32; one additional author or genre course; 61, 74, 75, 76, 92; an additional seminar course.

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

Please read pages 6–11 of this bulletin for general information concerning the Language Schools, as well as the rule concerning the exclusive use of the foreign language while enrolled in the School.

Living Accommodations Stewart Hall, one of the finest dormitories on the campus, is the headquarters of the Russian School. The view from Stewart lounge is superb. The Director’s Office is in the Language Center. In Proctor Dining Hall students eat in small groups, each table presided over by a member of the faculty. A system of rotation at meals provides opportunity for all to become better acquainted.

Activities All extra-curricular activities play an important part in mastering the language, and students are expected to participate actively. The schedule of classes is arranged to leave the afternoons free for study and recreation. Picnics, excursions to nearby lakes and mountains, “vecherinki” with musical and dramatic entertainments, lectures by instructors and guest speakers, informal singing, and Russian movies, provide ample recreational activity. Regular evenings for study of Russian dances have been set aside. Weekly sings are held in the Proctor Lounge. A Russian play will be staged under the direction of Mrs. Kozlowski and a Vecher khudozhestvennoy samodeyatelnosti will be presented under Mr. Maloff’s general supervision. The highlights of the session will include the fifteenth annual Alumni Weekend—July 18–July 20.

Books A well-balanced and constantly growing collection of books in all fields of Russian language, literature, and culture is housed in the College Library. The Russian Bookstore will carry a selection of classics, contemporary literature, and language textbooks. General supplies may be purchased at the College Bookstore.
Language Laboratory  Russian School students are urged to avail themselves of the excellent facilities afforded by the Language Center. (See page 8). Mr. Pressman and Mrs. Vukanovich will be available for assisting all those interested in improving their speech.

Self-Help  Students may assist in defraying their expenses by waiting on table in the Russian dining hall. The remuneration is board, plus a credit on the room charge. Those interested should apply to the Director before March 15. Appointments will be announced about April first.

Scholarships  A limited number of scholarships is available. These scholarships will be awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. All applications must be made to or through the Director before March 15. Awards will be announced about April first. The Alumni Organization also provides a Scholarship; only former students of the Russian School are eligible.

The Margaret L. Fayer Memorial Scholarship is awarded to a returning student under the auspices of the Alumni organization of the Russian School.

The Anastasia Pressman Memorial Scholarship is awarded to a student working for a graduate degree at Middlebury, preferably a prospective teacher of Russian.

Correspondence  Correspondence concerning courses, credits, degrees, and admission to the School or the Institute should be addressed to Dr. Robert L. Baker, Director, Russian Summer School, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont 05753. Correspondence concerning rooms, fees, and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College.
THE SPANISH SCHOOL will offer a broad program of Spanish studies in its fifty-third summer session. Three distinguished visiting professors will participate in the program: Professor Joaquín Casalduero, from the University of California (La Jolla), will lecture on Don Quijote and on The Drama of the Golden Age; Professor Eduardo Camacho Guizado, from the University of the Andes, Bogotá (Colombia), on The Poetry of Pablo Neruda and on Literary Theory and Analysis; and from Madrid, Professor Alberto Sánchez on Quevedo and on Spanish Romanticism.

New and old professors will lecture on various literary forms in the different periods of Spanish and Latin American literature: Professor Angel Alcalá, from Brooklyn College, on Contemporary Spanish Novel; Professor Emilio González on Surrealism and Spanish Fiction; Professor Manuel Alvarez Morales, from the University of Puerto Rico, on Latin American Novel in the Last Two Decades; Professor Humberto López Morales, from the University of Texas, on History of the Spanish Language; Alfonso I. Gil on Contemporary Spanish Theater after 1930; and Ramón Piñeiro, from Santiago de Compostela (Spain) on Unamuno and on Twentieth Century Spanish Essayists.

Four more courses complete this program: Historia de la civilización española by Professor Angel Alcalá; Historia de la civilización hispano-americana by Michele C. Gil; Spanish American Literature by Manuel Alvarez Morales; and Spanish Literature by Félix Carrasco, of Middlebury College.

Those interested in perfecting their ability in the Spanish language can count on the guidance of a group of expert teachers of Phonetics, Grammar and Composition under the direction of Professor Humberto López Morales, Eloísa Alvarez Morales, from the University of Puerto Rico, and Luz Castaños, from Barnard College.

III. Literature and Civilization

13. HISTORY OF SPANISH CIVILIZATION. A survey of modern Spanish history and civilization from the Renaissance to the Twentieth century.

15. HISTORY OF SPANISH-AMERICAN CIVILIZATION. A survey course on the main trends of the civilization of the Spanish American countries, from the pre-hispanic days up to the present. Special attention will be given to historical events in their connection with the development of culture in its various manifestations.

20. THE DEVELOPMENT OF SPANISH LITERATURE. This course is intended to give the student a comprehensive analysis of Spanish literature as a necessary introduction to more specialized courses. Its aim is to distinguish and classify the principal directions of Spanish literature from its origins to our time.

22. THE SPANISH THEATRE OF THE 16TH AND 17TH CENTURIES. Following a brief outline of the Spanish Medieval theatre, Spain's dramatic activity in the 16th and 17th centuries will be studied, through the analysis of the dramatists who, with Lope de Vega and Calderón de la Barca, contributed to the creation of a national theatre.

29. FORM AND MEANING OF THE QUIJOTE. This course will be devoted exclusively to the study of the first part of the Quijote. One or two chapters will be read each day and will serve as a basis for lectures and discussions. The main purpose of the course will be to apprehend the meaning of the novel through a detailed study of its form.

31. SPANISH-AMERICAN LITERATURE. An orderly analysis of Spanish-American literature from its early beginnings to the present day, showing the influence of geography, time and place. Discussions, lectures, and collateral reading on the most important phases.

34. SPANISH CONTEMPORARY ESSAY. Spanish essayists of the twentieth century and their awareness of the national crisis.

37. LITERARY THEORY AND ANALYSIS. Study of the main modern theories on the concept and function of literature, and on the methodological problems of literary studies. Their application to the analysis of Spanish literary texts.

77. SPANISH INFLUENCES ON FRENCH LITERATURE. A study of the transformations undergone by different themes, situations and characters in several plays and novels from the classical age to the present time when crossing over from Spain to France. Will be taught in French, in the French School (Recommended for D.M.L. candidates). 10:00 Mlle Delay.

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

Requirements for the Degrees Candidates for the Master's Degree must pass, before the completion of their work, an advanced course in each of the following subjects: Oral Practice, Grammar, Composition, Phonetics, and Methods, i.e. Courses 1, 2, 3, 4 and 10. In addition, at least 12 credits must be earned in the fields of Spanish and Spanish American Literature and Civilization. Students who have transferred credit for an equivalent graduate course taken elsewhere may request release from the requirement. With the exception of certain basic courses, which are offered every summer, the program changes yearly in a cyclic form.

Books General supplies and text books published in this country may be purchased at the College Bookstore, in the Student Union Building. The Librería of the Spanish School is located in the social room of Hepburn Hall. Here the required books in the literature and civilization courses, and other titles printed abroad, are on sale.

The College Library has a Spanish library of over 8,000 titles, covering the areas of language, literature, history and civilization, selected to fill the needs of the students at every level. Representative periodicals of Spain and Spanish America are received, in order to inform the students of the most recent trends in literature and education in the Spanish speaking world.

Accommodations One of the most attractive features of the school is the friendliness which exists between the faculty and students, in no small measure due to the fact that the faculty and staff, as well as all students, reside in the dormitories. Gifford and the new Residence Halls provide attractive and comfortable accommodations. All members of the school take their meals together in the Proctor Dining Hall. A system of rotation provides an opportunity for all to become better acquainted. The offices of the Director and Dean are in the Sunderland Language Center.

Activities Activities outside the classroom are an important feature of life in the Spanish School. Whether it is a picnic, a game of croquet, a tennis or golf match, a dance or a hand of cards, the object is to live it and play it in Spanish and to broaden one’s acquaintanceship with every phase of Spanish life and customs. Spanish folk songs and a choir directed by Mr. Emilio Núñez, and Spanish theater, both of the Golden Age and Contemporary period, directed by Miss Luz Castaños, and Spanish moving pictures, all are designed to add to the student’s enjoyment and knowledge.
Scholarships  A few scholarships of $200 each will be available this summer. These awards will be made on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application should be made to the Dean before March 15. The awards will be announced by April first.

The Juan A. Centeno Memorial Scholarship was established in the summer of 1949 by the students and faculty of the Middlebury Spanish Summer School, in memory of the beloved teacher who was Director of the School for fifteen years. The fund is still growing, and further contributions will be gladly received.

Self-Help  A limited number of students may earn their board and a credit on their room charge by acting as waiters and waitresses in the Spanish dining-halls. Those interested should apply to the Dean before March 15; awards will be announced by April first.

Graduate School in Spain  See the inside back cover of this bulletin.

Correspondence  Communications regarding admission, courses, credits and degrees should be addressed to The Executive Secretary of the Spanish Summer School, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont 05753. Correspondence concerning fees and rooms should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College.
Middlebury College conducts a Graduate School of French in France, a Graduate School of German in Germany, a Graduate School of Italian in Italy, and a Graduate School of Spanish in Spain. Sixty-six American students are now enrolled in the University of Paris under this plan; thirty-six students at the University of Mainz; twenty-eight at the University of Florence; and eighty in Madrid.

The students spend the academic year on a coordinated program of advanced instruction in linguistics, phonetics, literature, history, the arts and social institutions. These courses are followed in the Faculties or other divisions and institutes, or in specially arranged graduate study, in Paris, Mainz, Florence, and Madrid. The students work under the close guidance and supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College. At the close of the year, final examinations are administered under his direction, and the successful candidates receive the Middlebury Master of Arts degree, in addition to any foreign certificates or diplomas which they may earn.

A preliminary summer of preparation at the Middlebury Summer School is normally required, and only those who prove themselves qualified are allowed to enroll. Members of the group are treated as mature graduate students. They make their own arrangements for transportation, board and room, with the advice and guidance of the Middlebury Director. The Director facilitates worthwhile social contacts, and assists their plans for travel, visits to museums, and attendance at theaters and concerts. Each member is officially enrolled as a graduate student at Middlebury College, and pays his tuition fee to the college; this covers all enrollment, examination, and other academic fees abroad.
